

Southern African Association of Jungian Analysts presents

The Still Centre of the Turning World

Speaker: Lynn Carneson McGregor

In times of transition such as we are experiencing both in South Africa and worldwide at present, there is uncertainty, anxiety and fear. Is the regressive trend towards searching for tribal identity and reliance on Savior Archetypes across the globe, a mistaken search for security? In this climate, what is the role of individuation and collective wisdom?

Date:

Tuesday
March 28 2017

Time:

7.00 for
7.30 pm

Venue:

UCT Lung Institute,
George Street, Mowbray

Entrance NB

Members R80
Non-Members R100

Come early and have a cup of coffee while you browse our book display

No Bookings – For further information contact 021 689-6090 or e-mail: saaja@mweb.co.za

Lynn Carneson McGregor is a qualified sociologist, social psychologist and writer. Her book and Exhibition at the Iziko Slave Lodge, Cape Town, 'Red in the Rainbow' is about the contribution she, her family and others made during Apartheid to bring about liberation and embodies a continued commitment to developing workable forms of democracy. Her memoir, Homage to Hope, is being published by SAHO in 2017. In addition, she is an internationally known corporate governance practitioner, key-note speaker and writer, specialising in human aspects of corporate governance, leadership and board dynamics. Business leaders have come to her for personal development and better ways of working together.

PLEASE NOTE THE NEW ENTRANCE FEE

SAAJA Analytical Psychology Lecture Series: 2017
January 17 Julian David Ovid's Underworld	February 21 Machiel Klerk Dream Incubation	March 28 Lynn Carneson McGregor The Still Centre of the Turning World
April 25 Kaye Gersh The Dark Night of the Soul	May 23 John Gosling and Philippa Colinese An Introduction to an Expressive Sandwork Project on the Cape Flats	June 21 Vac
July 26 Renos Papadoupoulos	August 22 Paul Asthon	September 19
October 24 Sand play therapy	November 21 Renee Ramsden The Spirit in the Bottle: An Alchemical Fairy-tale	December Vac